Naples, November 27.

LAST Week M. Ulloa, by expreſs Commands from the King, ſet out from this City to Aquila, to enquire into the Quarrel which lately happened between the Preſident and the Miniſters of that Province, on Account whereof the Preſident has retired to Salerno. On the 17th Inſtant we had a violent Hurricane from the Sea, which by the Advices we have received from the different Parts of the Two Sicilies, occaſioned many Shipwrecks upon thoſe Coaſts. On the 18th their Majeſties with the Royal Family, attended by their reſpective Retinues and Guards, returned to this City from Portici. The Commander of the Caſtle of the Pantelleria has been diſmiſſed from that Employment, and put under Arreſt, on Account of the Eſcape which Don Anthony Filomarino had made from that Caſtle, who was, by the King's expreſs Orders, confined there for Life. On the 21ſt the Marqueſs de l'Hopital, the French Ambaſſador to the King, who a few Days before had an Audience of Leave of their Majeſties, ſet out from this City on his Return to France, having left here M. de Artene, Secretary of the Embaſſy, to take Charge of the Affairs of that Court. The Maſters of the Dutch and Engliſh Ships having on their Arrival at this Port, ſubmitted to ſhew their Bills of Lading, the Maſter of a French Veſſel which arrived here the other Day, complied likewiſe therewith. On the 22d the Carthuſian Fryars ſent to the King the uſual yearly Preſent of all Sorts of freſh Fruits, Sweetmeats, live Partridges, Pheaſants, &c. which was carried to the Palace in great Form. On the 23d the King went to the Lake of Ligola, to take the Diverſion of Shooting, on which Occaſion the Marqueſs of St. Marco, Maſter of the Horſe to the King, was, by the burſting of his Gun, ſlightly wounded in his Breaſt and Right Hand. There are ſeveral Robberies committed almoſt every Night, in all the Quarters of this City, and even one of the King's own Coaches was entirely ſtripped, a few Nights ago, before the Palace, although ſurrounded as it were by Centinels and Guards.

Rome, Nov. 31. Laſt Week the Pope ſummoned a Conſiſtory of many Cardinals, to examine the Proceſs which has been formed againſt a Biſhop of Corſica, who, in the Time of the Troubles in that Iſland, was arreſted by the Genoeſe, on Pretence of Diſaffection to their Government, and who ever ſince that Time has been kept Priſoner at Genoa; but as the Cardinals differed in their Sentiments with the Pope, the Deciſion was ſuſpended. On the 22d Inſtant died the General of the Jeſuits, and the next Day Father Vicentini was appointed Vicar General of that Order.

Genoa, Dec. 7. Every Thing here is in a profound State of Tranquillity. This Government is fully employed about re-eſtabliſhing the Bank of St. George, wherein they encounter great Difficulties; however, it is the general Opinion, that ſomething will be fixed on very ſoon. Affairs in Corſica continue in the ſame Situation they have been in for ſome Time paſt. A new Contract has lately been given out by M. Chauvelin for ſupplying the French Troops there with Proviſions, which is to commence the 1ſt of January next.

Warſaw, Dec. 8. The Meaſures that have been taken for the Security of the Frontiers of Podolia and Volhinia, have been attended with all the Succeſs imaginable. The Heyducks, who have committed the moſt unheard of Cruelties in thoſe Provinces, have been entirely defeated and diſperſed by the Detachments that have been ſent againſt them: And Advice having been received, that ſome ſmall Bodies of them have ſince appeared towards Lithuania and the Weſtern Provinces of Great Ruſſia, a conſiderable Body of Troops are ſent in Purſuit of them. The Diſtemper amongſt the Horned Cattle continues ſtill to rage very much in Great Poland. A few Days ago the Ceremony of the Nuptials of Prince Jablonowsky with a Daughter of Count Sapihea, heretofore General of the Artillery of the Great Dutchy of Lithuania, was performed with great Splendor at Jablonow, ſeveral of the Firſt Families in this Kingdom having been invited thither on that Occaſion. The Proceedings of the Tribunal of Petrikaw go on with great Tranquillity.

Vienna, Dec. 9. Yeſterday the Emperor's Birth-day was celebrated at Court with great Magnificence; he then entred into the [illegible] Year of

of his Age, and was complimented thereupon by all the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters; after which his Imperial Majeſty, attended by the Pope's Nuncio, the Knights of the Order of the Golden Fleece, and a numerous Retinue, went in Proceſſion to the Metropolitan Church of St. Stephen; and having heard Divine Service, he returned to the Palace, and dined in Publick.

Copenhagen, Dec. 12. The King has appointed Major General Reichow to be Governor of Frederickſtein in Norway, vacant by the Death of Lieutenant General Beenfeldt. Information having been given, that divers Robberies are frequently committed in Norway amongſt the Horſes and Cattle, Numbers of which have been lately taken out of the Meadows and Fields, and many of them with no other View than to cut off their Mains and Tails, in order to ſell the Hair; his Majeſty, to prevent an Evil ſo prejudicial to the Publick, has cauſed an Edict to be publiſhed, in Conformity to the Ordonnance of the 4th of May 1690, by which all Perſons who ſhall hereafter be convicted of ſtealing any Horſes, Mares, Oxen or Cows, are to be puniſhed with Death; and thoſe who ſhall be convicted of cutting off the Mains or Tails of any Horſes or Mares, without the Conſent of the Owners, are to pay the full Value of ſuch Horſes or Mares; and, in Caſe they are not able to pay, they are to be publickly whipped and ſent into Slavery, if Men; and to be ſhut up for Life in a Houſe of Correction, if Women.

Hambourg, Dec. 18. The late Burghermaſter Lipſtorff was interred here the Night before laſt; and Yeſterday Counſellor Van Spreckelſen was made Choice of to ſucceed him.

Bruſſels, Dec. 20. Prince Charles of Lorrain went from hence on Wedneſday Morning laſt for Ter Vuren, in order to take the Diverſion of hunting, and returned hither again on Friday Night. They write from Newport, that they have lately had very tempeſtuous Weather in thoſe Parts, and that ſome Wrecks have been thrown on Shore between that Town and Dunkirk.

Hague, Dec. 22. His Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange aſſiſted again this Morning at the Aſſembly of their High Mightineſſes. The Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick Bevern, who lately arrrived here, has been preſented to the Prince Stadtholder, and was received with great Marks of Diſtinction.
